Our project	 Our Leonardo project aims to boost the 3 year training in services to persons, (for example: old people's homes, home care services, child care centres, hospitals, schools...) open it to other cultures and other territories. We hope that the training in Europe will develop the sociocultural education of our young, especially through notions of non-verbal communication. We are already working with the drama and role-playing games, we think that a placement in a foreign country will promote the professional communication across cultures and languages. This placement should also allow young people to experiment with new techniques to help people, new ways of leading activities, organizing projects ... They will also discover other professional contexts, new approaches to the place of the family, children, elderly and disabled people, particularly in connection with the culture of the country Pupils will also be aware of the way structures are financed and public policies implemented in the territories for services.
The partners we are looking for	A school offering professional training in the field of services to people, or health and welfare. Our intention is to develop with the school, a lasting partnership. Its role will be to develop relationships between our school and work experience places for our pupils. Its role will also help us organize accommodation during their placement. Our school can welcome its European partner school in France for exchanges between teachers, for example.
